Adjutant Henry M. Duffield

I give you this sword my dear boy to defend our beloved Government & the Union one & undivided dear to my heart as it has always been -

Remember you bear no trifling brand - for

"Honors bright hilt is in your hand Go! for your Flag undaunted stand -"

"Heaven's blessing upon it! its stars ~~shone~~ ^{shone} as

With a lustre so pure and so warm like a beacon's ~~calm~~ ^{calm} light pointing out the safe way

They gleam thro' the gathering storm
Their heart cheering light led our fathers ^{right}

Thro' all the dark perils they knew;

The same magic glow shall lead you to the foe
And guide you to victory too -"

I give to my Country two bright gems from the cluster of my Home
